It was estimated that four million dollars worth of sugar had been destroyed. The Charge on Fort Wagner. New York, July 27 .- Details of the charge of the 52d made on Fort Wagner show most desperate fighting by Gen Strong's brigade. Scarcely a field or line officer escaped wounding and many were killed. At one time nearly the whole Rebel force concentrated upon the 54th Massachusetts. They fought heroically and only retired when the rest did. Col. Putnam's command was the storming party. After they had gained a part of the fort and planted their flag on the parapet, word was ments, but both the Generals had been wounded. Meantime the storming party were being decimated by the Rebel grape, and when General Stevenson's brigade had received orders to ad vance it was too late for our gallant men had been forces to retire.
